Ainvest Fintech Inc makes no guarantees, warranties, or promises regarding investment outcomes or advice through its products, including AIME+ Pro, AIME+ Premium, and its subsidiary options-focused service Options+. Market analyses, opinions, and third-party-sourced information (e.g., securities, market developments) within AIME+ Pro and AIME+ Premium are provided for educational purposes only; they do not claim to be comprehensive, accurate, or reliable and may contain incomplete statements, subjective views, or potential errors. As part of AIME+ Premium, Options+ includes two features: "Option Real-Time Quotes" (delivering data via OPRA) and "Block Tracker" (monitoring large market orders), both intended solely for educational reference. Options trading involves significant risks, such as market volatility, time decay, leverage effects, and potential loss of the entire investment, and may not be suitable for all investors. Users must independently evaluate their financial objectives, risk tolerance, and experience, acknowledging that all investments carry risks and past performance does not guarantee future results. Ainvest Fintech Inc disclaims all liability for direct or indirect losses arising from reliance on its products and does not verify the accuracy, completeness, or timeliness of provided content. Users are strongly advised to consult qualified financial professionals and assume full responsibility for all risks. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Ainvest Fintech Inc excludes all related liabilities.
