

Options+ Terms of Use

"Options+" is a service offered for option traders, featuring two key components: "Option Real-Time Quotes" and "Block Tracker" offered from Ainvest Fintech Inc.

- Option Real-Time Quotes provides users with real time options market data through OPRA.
- Block Tracker offers real-time monitoring of market block orders, solely for educational purposes.

Users should perform their own research and exercise independent judgment before making any trading decisions based on insights from the "Block Tracker." Please note that investing carries inherent risks, including the possibility of losing your entire investment.

The "Options+" service requires a monthly subscription, which is processed via the Apple App Store and Google Play Store. The monthly fee is $24.99, with an annual subscription option available for $145.99. Customers may request a refund for any reason within 24 hours of payment. After this period, no refunds or credits will be issued. By subscribing, customers acknowledge and accept these terms and the associated risks.

By using "Options+", you agree that "Ainvest Fintech" will not be held liable for any technical issues, such as system glitches, website or server downtime, or other errors that may affect the website, mobile application, or the functionality of the "Options+" service. Ainvest Fintech will not be responsible for any investment losses or damages resulting from the use of the subscription service.

As a customer, you understand that technical and data issues may arise from time to time. There may be instances where the data displayed by the indicator is inaccurate. If you choose to make trades based on the data provided, you do so at your own risk, acknowledging the potential for a total loss of your investment. Ainvest Fintech, as well as third-party vendors or brokerage partners, cannot be held liable for any issues related to the technology or product.

Ainvest Fintech Inc is neither a licensed Broker-Dealer or Investment Adviser. Ainvest Fintech Inc simply provides a platform for the "Options+" indicator as well as other products and services and does not offer trading, trading advice, investment recommendations, or guarantees of any kind. It is your responsibility to determine whether trading through your broker-dealer based on the provided data is suitable for you. This service does not constitute an offer to buy or sell options or securities, nor is it a recommendation to use the "Options+" product.

By proceeding with trades based on the information provided, you confirm that you have conducted your own research and fully understand the risks involved. Ainvest Fintech will not be held accountable for any losses or technical downtime you may experience. If you have any questions about the system or its functionality, please contact Ainvest Fintech customer support at support@ainvest.com.

By agreeing to these terms, you confirm your acceptance of the conditions for using "Options+".
